Word of the Month

PERSEVERANCE

Perseverance means that we don't give up, even when we are facing tough problems! Remember, giving up means that we let our problems control us. Perseverance means that we control our problems.

You have used perseverance before, even if you don't remember it! I challenge you to think of two times you have used perseverance (not giving up when solving a problem) in the past. Then think of two times you can use it in the future!

Times I have used perseverance:

In martial arts class, I used perseverance:

In school, I used perseverance:

Times I will use perseverance in the future:
