

1 OUT OF 100 Press Release

Willie “The BAM” Johnson, the seven-time Karate and Kung-Fu world champion and two-time All-American champion is introducing a new film. The film, entitled 1 Out of 100 is written by Mr. Johnson and Stephen Wilkes and directed by Robert Parham. Kimber Johnson is the executive producer.

This new film stars Mr. Johnson’s sons Marshieh Johnson and Zaron Johnson. Other world champion black belt complete martial artists, kids and teen are featured in the film. A dynamic cast of talent tells this impactful story.

1 Out of 100 is an award-winning film about a mindset focused on that extra little effort that puts you ahead of the 99% that decide to rest or quit. The film showcases peaceful solutions to many of the negatives that are plaguing our society today. Willie “The BAM” Johnson is an individual who overcame the adversity that many people die from being raised in a city like Baltimore. He is that 1 Out of 100 that made it out of the negative situations and environment of Baltimore with his family who has continued to give back for over thirty-seven years.

The characters in this film show a commitment to a daily grind to achieve internal success that equals external consistent growth. The discovery of faith through the battle of the unknown is truly remarkable and once again based upon real-life events. The movement that is taking place as a result of this film is so important to the empowerment of the next generation finding simple martial arts tools called Point MMA 37 Skills, entrepreneurship leadership skills to achieve success and control their destiny.

1 Out of 100 is a story set in the backdrop of Baltimore City and Laurel Maryland, showing the hidden richness of structured martial arts activities. Point MMA Crazy Athletics, a complete system of personal development for mind, body and spirit, is a unique program developed in the heart of Baltimore which has spread throughout the world teaching millions of people. To start, 100 scholarships that will go out will impact Baltimore City, Prince George’s County, California, Florida and many other cities. We will then move to achieving 1 million scholarships and licensing well over 1 million teenagers and young adults to be coaches and mentors in this program. We are asking you to step up to this call of action for every program purchase we will be able to give a program away to any kid, teenager or young adult that qualifies.

We believe this historical completion of a full-length sports drama showcasing realistic challenges for you and adults during COVID-19 is a must see. We believe that a day should be recognized in honor of The BAMS 1 Out of 100 film competition day and mindset to inspire others to reach whole new highs. The movie was completed with practically no budget, other than $2,500 with 50% being donated by Robert Wallace of Bithgroup Technologies in Baltimore City (he was a candidate for mayor in 2020). Robert Parham, one of the most sought-after independent film directors, united with Willie “The BAM” Johnson, Kimber Johnson and a team of other filmmakers from around the world in order to complete this heartfelt film, to inspire many with a sense of hope and empowerment from the inside out after dealing with the devastation of COVID-19.

The 37 Skills Entrepreneurship component is a simplified curriculum of traditional values with a modern approach to give you over 2000 years of essential basics. These essentials will make you a master of your destiny and the best you can be over time through teaching, mentoring, and empowering other people. The life lessons focus on bullying and its affect on affect on kids, teens and adults, personal accountability, goal setting, commitment, good character under pressure, trauma, mental health and so much more. The 37 Skill Entrepreneurship component has produced many successful young adults in both the entertainment and academic industries. Each one teach one and become a great one.

This spiritually inspired film is going to empower many and it premieres soon at Baltimore City’s historical Charles Theater on December 27, 2022 at 4:00pm. Workshops and additional events will begin at 2:00pm. Proceeds from the premier will go towards the Johnson Family One Million Scholarship Drive for youth who are fighting to be 1 Out of 100. The film will also be released on TUBItv, XUMO, Redbox, Crackle and Amazon streaming platforms.

God is good, part two is currently in the works and we are seeking funding and support as post-production for part one is happening now. Any type of donation or support is welcome. This is a once in a lifetime opportunity to show the world unity, love, peace and harmony in a commitment to empowering the next generation with key Point MMA 37 Skills. The format for this program in the mindset of 1 Out of 100 is already laid out. It should be emulated and implemented throughout our country.
